

SOLVENT REPLACEMENT

Manufacturer of solvents for composites industry. Products include cleaners, strippers, wipes & flush.

Solvents are suitable for various applications including removal of dirt, oils, adhesives, gel coats, inks, dyes, stains, grease, rust, tar & urethanes.

Solvents

are biodegradable, non-flammable, non-hazardous & non-combustible.

21st Century Composites is a solvent replacement technology company. We are experts at replacing dangerous solvents and effectively eliminating hazardous waste production from various sources. Our products and technology allows customers around the world to help contribute to a safer and better environment for all of us.

It's a privilege to help our customers in achieving environmental stewardship.

Because we concentrate exclusively on Solvent replacement technology, we are able to focus on the needs of each customer individually to ensure success. We understand that every customer presents a unique situation; this is why we develop a custom solution to meet these requirements. We are fully committed to achieving the same goal as our customers: to completely eliminate hazardous solvent use forever.

Bryan Hacht - Director of Sales

phone (772) 834-3947

fax (954) 321-5128

3019 Ravenswood Road | Unit 108

Dania Beach, FL 33312

<http://www.21stcenturycomposites.com>

Solvents Information

Manufacturer of solvents including cleaners, wipes, flush & strippers. Specifications of solvents include 208 degrees F minimum flash point, freezing point up to 10 degrees F & boiling point up to 310 degrees F at 760 mm Hg pressure. Solvents are biodegradable, non-hazardous, non-flammable & non-combustible. Solvents are suitable for various applications including removal of dirt, oils, adhesives, gel coats, inks, dyes, stains, grease, rust, tar & urethanes.